

Sophie Lemmerman

sophie.lemm@gmail.com • www.sophielemmerman.com • +1 (571) 431-9218

Multicultural, hardworking leader dedicated to visual storytelling.
Skilled video artist with work experience in 5 languages transcending borders through creative media.

LANGUAGES

English (native) • French (native) • Spanish (fluent) • German (advanced/B2) • Arabic (intermediate/B1)

SKILLS

Video Editing • Product Photography • Event Photography • Writing • Translation • Adobe Creative Suite
DaVinci Resolve • Panasonic Lumix S5i • Canon 5D Mark IV • Live U • Ronin Gimbal RS2

EDUCATION

|                                                                                                    |             |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Wellesley College - Wellesley, MA                                                           | 2018 – 2022 |
| - BA (2022) in Studio Art and Middle Eastern Studies                                               |             |
| The American University of Paris (AUP) - Paris, France                                      | 2020 – 2022 |
| - Studied Video Journalism and Communications                                                      |             |
| Dar Loughat - Tétouan, Morocco                                                              | 2020        |
| - Studied Classical Arabic (MSA) and Moroccan dialect for 1 month, certified B1 level              |             |
| Lycée International de St. Germain en Laye - Paris, France                                  | 2015 – 2018 |
| - French Baccalaureate with International Option (OIB), highest honors or mention très bien |             |

WORK EXPERIENCE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                     |             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Freelance Video Editor at J6 Mediaworks, Beacon, NY                                                                                                                                          | 2023 – 2024 |
| - Lead editor on the new Plant Studio course videos for the New York Botanical Gardens                                                                                                       |             |
| Freelance Product Photographer for Dirty Bacchus, Beacon, NY                                                                                                                                 | 2023        |
| - Shot and edited 450 in-store SKUs for local wine store's upcoming website                                                                                                                         |             |
| Freelance Media Consultant for Gray Duck Media, Remote                                                                                                                                       | 2023        |
| - Edited videos, photos and created graphic assets for the Dabbler Depot liquor store                                                                                                               |             |
| Digital Production Intern at Gray Duck Media, Saint Paul, MN                                                                                                                                 | 2022 – 2023 |
| - Shot and edited promotional content for the annual Winter Beer Dabbler festival                                                                                                            |             |
| - Created professional video/photo content for the Dabbler Depot liquor store                                                                                                                |             |
| Food Media and Production Intern at Comidas Que Curan, Ecuador                                                                                                                               | 2022        |
| - Spent 2 weeks in Ecuador interviewing locals about food culture in Manabí                                                                                                                         |             |
| - Transcribed and translated 5+ videos to be uploaded online and submitted to festivals                                                                                                             |             |
| Technology and Hardware Assistant at the Wellesley Art CAGE (media equipment center)                                                                                                         | 2020 – 2022 |
| - Trained students on camera equipment, audio recorders and post-production software                                                                                                                |             |
| Video Journalism Intern at Agence France-Presse, Paris                                                                                                                                       | 2021        |
| - Covered live press conference with President Emmanuel Macron, political protests, led interviews in French, operated Live U, translated/transcribed videos for reporters using Adobe Premiere Pro |             |
| Executive Producer at Peacock Play (AUP's student-run journalism platform)                                                                                                                   | 2021        |
| - Managed the platform's YouTube channel, uploaded videos, led editing workshops for students                                                                                                       |             |
| Communications and Media Intern at CCCL, Morocco                                                                                                                                             | 2020        |
| - Edited lecture videos, cooking tutorials and promo videos using DaVinci Resolve and Premiere Pro                                                                                                  |             |
| Journalism Intern at The New York Times, Paris                                                                                                                                               | 2016        |
| - Shadowed reporters in the newsroom and attended daily news meetings                                                                                                                               |             |